On behalf of the chairman of the board, Pastor Olubi Johnson, the CEO Mrs. Sarah Olubi Johnson, Executive Directors and entire staff of Lifeforte International Junior School, we give all honor glory and adoration to God as another successful academic session has rolled by.

Today marks the end of an extremely successful year packed full with testimonies of the goodness of God upon our lives as a school.

We also thank you our parents for your patronage, and prompt payment of fees and for entrusting us with the lives of your priceless invaluable jewels. May you all live long to reap the fruit of your labour over these children in Jesus Name (Amen)

"WED" World Environment Day: 5th June 2014. In the course of this term, our pupils were exposed to a variety of learning experiences. The peak of the activities this term was the "WED": World Environment Day celebrated in Lifeforte on the 27th of June 2014.

We are proud of our pupils efforts in putting various models together to depict the Eco system, Ozone layer depletion, water and air pollution, global warming, renewable energy, deforestation and aforestation etc..

Literacy Day:

Our annual Literacy Day turned out to be an exciting and delightful experience as parents watched their children overcoming challenging words by pronouncing them accurately. We also appreciate our parents for buying more story books for their children on that day, we encourage and appeal to parents to create more time to listen to their children read and thereby help to lay a solid foundation for reading.

In pursuit of the increasing need to ensure our children are at their peak in all aspects of the English Language Comprehension, Grammar, Creative-writing, Vocabulary development, Poetry, Phonetics, Impromptu speeches all our grade level pupils were exposed to four weeks of intensive rounds of various tests on the use of English.

International Conference

In collaboration with the Teacher Education Department of the University of Ibadan and Lifeforte International Schools, I was privileged to attend the 34th ISFTE Annual conference 2014 held in Hacettepe University, Belek, Antalya, Turkey.

Within this inspirational conference, I presented my post graduate thesis on "Reading Comprehension as a Pre-requisite for Pupils Excelling in all School subjects". The conference focused its full energy on the critical issues confronting teacher educators in 2014 and beyond. It was a well-attended seminar with over 150 professional educators from more than 45 countries from around the globe.

Exposure in this regard for us as a school goes a long way in influencing all teaching and learning experiences for our pupils as well as establishing and enriching a vibrant learning environment in the school.
