NEWSLETTER TO PARENTS/GUARDIANS

We bless the name of the Almighty God for his continued guidance, mercy and love on us as an organization since the inception of the session 2008-2009. We also appreciate our beloved parents and guardians for their unflinching support.

MID-TERM BREAK/RESUMPTION

The mid-term break begins today i.e Saturday, 18th October, 2008. Students are expected to be back in school on Saturday, 25th October, 2008. Kindly ensure that the children return to school promptly so as to inculcate in them the virtues of obedience and compliance to rules. Moreover, as from henceforth, students will be sanctioned for late resumption.

PROGRESS REPORT

The report of work done this half-term is hereby enclosed. Students scores are based on overall assessment from Tests, Class exercises, Assignments and Projects. Effort grades are also indicated. We enjoin you to review their work and discuss their progress with them.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

In compliance with the school tradition of offering students a balanced educational curriculum, the first half term of the session provided series of exciting activities including Project Talent Hunt. Oral English, Spelling Bee Competition, “What – do – you – know? and News Presentation.

1. Project Talent Hunt: The impressive displays on Saturday 27th September 2008 is best described as an Explosion of Creativity. Presided over by the Chairman, Board of Directors Pastor Olubi Johnson, assisted by the CEO, Mrs. Sarah Johnson and under the Chairmanship of the Executive Editor, Tell Magazine Mr. Ademola Oyinlola, it was a keen contest between the different houses, each working hard to emerge the best in Poem recitation , Song renditions, Instrumentals, Choreography, Art Exhibitions, Fashion Design and Cultural displays. For the first time, the Efik dance ‘Ekombe’ featured.

The overall winning house was Sarah who clinched the trophies for Art and Crafts, Cultural display (Bata dance) and Instrumentals. Ruth house won the trophy for Fashion Design. The trophy for Best individual performance went to Oyindamola Johnson of Sarah house.

2. Independence Day Celebrations

October 1st was celebrated by the students body amidst fun and lots of excitement. Prayers were made for Nigeria, led by the Head boy, Ayodeji Adeyemi ably assisted by the Head girl, Busola Oyinlola.

This was followed by a Nigerian Fashion show, poem/ song renditions, How Well Do You Know Your Country Quiz and a special Power – Point presentation by the A-Level students titled “The Nigerian Line” to portray the emergence of a new, vibrant Nigerian nation.

SCHOOL TOUR

WOW ITS DUBAI, ABU DHABI

In line with the recent developments in the United Arab Emirates, and as the students look to the emergence of a new Nigeria, this year’s school tour takes us to Doha, Dubai, Abu Dhabi and promises to be a most enjoyable and memorable trip.

Learn everything about the oil- so called ‘black gold’ and how it has transformed Abu-Dhabi into the wealthy city of today.

the striking example of modern architecture, richly mixing the old and new

the Wonderland park and the Waterpark combination of starkly contrasting landscapes and magnificent mountain sites

the safari, an opportunity to see the golden sand dunes of Arabia

the Dubai camel race

visit the museum

And lots more .

DUBAI, .. the city of gold, without a doubt the leading tourist city in the Middle East.

Tour Fee: ,500

Payment deadline: 1st October, 2008

Students are expected to travel light, cameras, disc mans, camcorders, i-pods, beachwear all add to the fun

PAYMENT OF OUTSTANDING BILLS

We encourage parents to pay all outstanding fees on resumption, otherwise the children will not be given clearance passes.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

We implore parents/ guardians to watch over the spiritual lives of the children over the short break. There is need to monitor what they read, watch or do on the internet. They should be encouraged to give attention to their daily bible reading and prayer lives so that they can enjoy the fullness of God’s presence as they stay in constant fellowship with the Holy Spirit.

God Bless you all.

Mrs. Grace Aina.
Principal.
