

Lifeforte International High School

16th July, 2010

Dear Sir/Madam,

END OF YEAR NEWSLETTER TO PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Praise be to God, the Almighty who has been with us and seen us through this academic year. It has been fulfilling and we give to God all the praise and glory.

RESUMPTION

We are going on a vacation of SEVEN weeks. The next session begins on Saturday 4th September 2010. Parents should please note that in keeping with the school policy, the resumption date will be strictly adhered to.

PROGRESS REPORT

In this final term, i.e. the Harvest Term, the cumulative average score of work done throughout the session is used as criteria for promoting students. It is also our policy to promote some candidates on trial hoping by the end of the first term, they would have improved significantly otherwise, the School Management would be left with no other choice than to move them back to their previous classes for their own good.

ACTIVITIES REPORT

VALEDICTORY SERVICE PROGRAMME

The Valedictory Service program for the graduating classes of 2010 took place on June 19th and was a joyous affair. Our Chairperson, the Vice-Chancellor University of Ibadan, Prof Olufemi Bamiro though unavoidably absent was ably represented by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academics) Prof. Adigun Agbaje who delivered a clear message of hope amplified independently by the Chairman Pastor Olubi Johnson and the CEO, Mrs. Sarah Johnson that the graduands represented a seed of life, righteousness and excellence to our nation and their generation guaranteed by God Himself. The highlight of the ceremony was the presentation of Character and Academic Awards/Certificates during which the outgoing Headboy, Damola Sanni and outgoing Deputy Headgirl Enioluwa Johnson were joint awardees of the Olubi Johnson Character and Leadership award, outgoing Assembly Prefect Mosope Bob-Soile (Faithfulness), outgoing Daniel House Captain Miraculata Oluwajoba (Thomas Etuh Service award) and outgoing Social Prefect Oladeji Awoniyi (Innovation award). The newly introduced Highest Academic Honours in the Graduating Class 2010 was clinched by Mosope Bob-Soile.

CEO'S DINNER

A much anticipated annual event by the graduating class, the CEO plays hostess to the graduating students as they enjoy poolside dinner at her home, individually taking turns to reminisce over their high school experience amidst cheers and tears.

Buffet styled sumptuous dinner, fruit juice and non-alcoholic wine was served with soft music in the background, as the elegantly dressed students share their parting thoughts with their colleagues, wishing one another farewell. It was a memorable evening, thoroughly enjoyed by all.

SENIORS PROM NIGHT

The prom night, hosted by the Grade 11 students was a festival of elegance and glamour with colorful formal dresses, sharp-looking suits, tuxedos and lots of innovation. A video clip presentation took the outgoing class (and indeed the entire audience) on a rib-cracking trip down memory lane while an impressive fashion parade by students in Senior High drew lots of applause. The Award presentation was the highlight and saw Oladeji Awoniyi and Fiyin Tunde-Onadele emerge as Prom King and Queen respectively. A tasty three course meal added spice and merriment to the evening with energizing music, eventually culminating into a dance, dance, dance finale. By unanimous consensus, the occasion lived up to high expectations and produced many fond memories!

PARENT'S ADDRESS

Our children are truly 'Chosen and Destined for Greatness' and it was in line with the school ethos that one of our parents was invited to address the Senior Students in a session she captioned "I Am Different, So What!"

Our Speaker of the Day, Mrs. Charity Babatunde gave the students a Four Point Charge:

- Be Confident of who God has made you
- Appreciate who you are, remember everyone has strengths and weaknesses
- Know and learn to develop your strengths
- Do what you know is right regardless of what others may think of you.
